

Rain Garden

Training for Professionals

Hundreds of rain gardens have been installed in our region and will soon be a requirement for new construction. Stay ahead of the curve and expand your business market!

Counties and Dates

Thurston Co. October 10-11, 2013
Kitsap Co. October 17-18, 2013
King Co. October 23-24, 2013
Pierce Co. October 29-30, 2013
Snohomish Co. November 6-7, 2013
Skagit Co. November 12-13, 2013
Whatcom Co. November 21-22, 2013
Jefferson Co. December 5-6, 2013

Location

LOTT Clean Water Alliance, Olympia, WA
TBD in Bremerton, WA
Center for Urban Horticulture, Seattle, WA
WSU D.F. Allmendinger Center, Puyallup, WA
Blue Heron Room, Port of Everett, WA
Padilla Bay Nat. Est. Re. Res, Mt. Vernon, WA
WSU Whatcom Extension, Bellingham, WA
NW Maritime Center, Port Townsend, WA

Who should attend?

- Landscape designers
- Engineers
- Public Works staff
- Installers and landscape maintenance staff
- Landscape architects
- Landscape business owners

How will I benefit?

- Learn about your Counties new Low Impact Development (LID) regulations, site analysis, soils, designs, material specifications and more.
- Learn how to market these new strategies to your clients.
- Your name will appear on a list of trained professionals which will be provided to potential clients.
- Earn 11 CPH credits and landscape industry certified CEUs
- Receive handbooks and other resources on rain gardens.

Register at:

www.12000raingardens.org/get-involved/events/

Questions? Call 425-357-6037

12,000
RAIN GARDENS
in Puget Sound

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION